

February 2012

Noble Horizons

Salisbury, Connecticut

Different Faces of the Wagner Concierge

Just in case you are wondering where Lana Knutson went, she was recently promoted to the Nursing department as Unit Secretary, here at Noble Horizons. The ladies who are now present are: Helga Johnson, working Saturday through Tuesday, and Kelly Galgano who works Wednesday through Friday. Shelby Papolio continues to be the on-call Concierge when a need arises.

Pieter Lefferts Painting Classes

Winter weather can lead to cabin fever, but by joining artist Pieter Lefferts FREE painting classes, the beautiful and exotic are just a paint stroke away! Create Caribbean seas, lively flower meadows and other colorful antidotes to the cold weather that can transport you from the monochrome of Connecticut's mid-winter. Beginning February 2 and running through March 8 for six consecutive Thursday mornings from 10:00-11:30 am, Mr. Lefferts will reprise his popular painting class for first-time painters or for experienced painters seeking new inspiration. Mr. Lefferts, whose paintings are in collections across North America, is the recipient of numerous awards for his own work and as an arts educator. Please contact the Recreation Department by February 1 (ext. 154) to register. Space is limited.

Basic Obedience and Manners Class

Susan Fireman, whose dogs have been ranked in the top 15 nationally in the AKC obedience class, will teach a five-week dog obedience and manners class at Noble Horizons this winter. The weekly classes, which cost $130, will begin on Sunday, February 12 and run from noon-1:00 pm through March 11 in the Life-Long Learning Center. Susan welcomes guest observers to her dog classes, and invites residents to watch each week at no charge. Please call the Recreation Department, ext. 154. for more information.